

Business Supporters' Scheme

Becoming a Business Supporter of Off The Fence shows that your company is committed to improving the lives of the most marginalised in Brighton and Hove.

Off The Fence Trust is a Brighton based registered charity founded on a Christian vision and driven by Christian values. The charity provides vital services to the most vulnerable and marginalised in our community. The charity works in the three areas of street homelessness, vulnerable women and education. Off The Fence staff are supported by an enthusiastic and committed group of more than 50 volunteers.

Benefits of the Business Supporters' Scheme

Supporting the scheme costs £200 per annum. The benefits are listed below:-

- A Business Supporters' Scheme certificate
- Invitations to Off The Fence events
- The right to use the Off The Fence logo in your company literature
- Publicity in Off The Fence publications and the media
- Advance notice of sponsorship opportunities which can be tailored to your own requirements
- A link to your company website from the Off The Fence website

In addition, Business Supporters receive copies of the Off The Fence newsletter which is published quarterly.

With your help, we can make a real difference to the lives of the most marginalised people of Brighton and Hove. Please do help us to challenge poverty by becoming a Business Supporter of Off The Fence. A certificate in your reception and our logo in your publications will show everyone that you support your local community. To give us your support, just complete the details below.
